Wilson, John	Garrard County Judge/Executive	I am pleased to report that work on the judicial center is progressing nicely. Steel will be delivered this week and workers should start framing the building within 30 days. In other news, the Fiscal Court is very excited on the formation of the Garrard Lincoln Solid Waste Management Area, whereby we have combined the Solid Waste and Recycling programs of both counties, which will result in a significant savings for both counties over time and result in better services for our citizens. As a result of the merger and the additional duties Chris Thomason will be performing, Thomason has resigned his position with the CSEPP program and the Fiscal Court has appointed Jay Overman as the new director of the CSEPP program. Overman, a Garrard Countian with previous experience working for Senator Richard Lugar in Washington and in the US Army as part of the 3rd Chemical Brigade is a graduate from William and Mary and will be an asset to the county.
